The ServSafe Food Protection Manager Certification Program was developed by the National Restaurant Association. It is designed to meet today's food safety challenges and fulfill state requirements for certified food protection managers. Updated with the 2016 FDA food codes the class will enhance your knowledge of the principles of safety and sanitation in the food service field. The class is 16 hours long and concludes with a two hour examination. Graduates who pass the exam will receive a certificate of certification. The Instructor for this program will be award winning chef Jim Washington. Mr. Washington has been an instructor at the Career and Technology Center for twelve years.

The way the program works is simple. Obtain an application by downloading it from the J.M. Tawes website or the Somerset County Public Schools Adult Education Website. Complete the application and register for the class at JMTawes Career and Technology Center & Marion School, on March 6th and 7th from 9 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Space is limited to fourteen students. Applicants must be 18 and a resident of Somerset County. For additional information contact Conal Turner at 410-621-6245.
